

Comprehension

Use the information on these two pages to answer the questions.

- Which of these people are not elected: a peer, an MP, a civil servant, the Prime Minister?
- What is the difference between a life peer and a hereditary peer?
- What are civil servants?
- Which areas of government do these people deal with: the Chancellor of the Exchequer, the Home Secretary, the Lord Chancellor?

- Find two examples of executive organisations outside central government.

Discussion

Work in pairs.

- What differences are there between Parliament and the Government?
- List some similarities and differences between the UK parliamentary system and your own.