

RELATIVE PRONOUN

Complete the sentences.

Hawaii, _____ has been called the “little US”; became the 50th state in 1959. This state consists of 132 islands, _____ the island of Hawaii is the biggest and the most important. Before the Japanese attack at Pearl Harbour on December 7, 1941, _____ drew the US into World War II, the islands were almost unknown to most of the world. The natives, _____ land had been taken by American farmers _____ grew sugar cane and pineapples, were decimated by disease, such as small pox, _____ was introduced by outsiders. Due to tourism, the state’s population has increased, lots of people _____ jobs are provided by tourism earn a living there. Some native Hawaiians _____ private land has been taken over by big US companies try to fight against foreign domination—in vain.

Most Hawaiians, _____ outlook on the future is optimistic, believe in an equal-opportunity society. They welcome foreigners with the friendly “aloha”, _____ means “love”.