

SIMPLE PRESENT OR PRESENT PROGRESSIVE.COMPLETE THE SENTENCES

Rudi is an exchange student from Germany at a college in a small town in Arkansas. He arrived a few days ago and found two new friends, Ann and David.

David: Rudi, I (wonder) _____ if you (know) _____ our typical Saturday night entertainment—it's called cruising.

RUDI: CRUISING? WHAT'S THAT?

Ann: Let's go cruising Saturday night. If you (come) _____ with us, you will see.

It's Saturday, seven thirty p.m., Rudi (wait) _____ for his new friends. Listen, a car (stop) _____ in front of the house where Rudi (live) _____ with his host family, the Foxes.

Mrs. Fox: Here's the key for the front door, Rudi. We won't be in when you (come) _____ home. We (visit) _____ our friends.

Now Rudi (get into) _____ David's car. David (rush) _____ off at full speed.

Ann: David, why (you drive) _____ so fast? You always (drive) _____ too fast.

David: I never (drive) _____ too fast. Be quiet!

Rudi can hardly understand them, because the radio is so loud. Now the car (arrive) _____ at the main street of the town. Rudi is surprised: there are lots of cars full of teenagers. They (drive) _____ up and down the main street. The radios are on full blast and the boys and girls (shout) _____ at each other. There's a terrible noise.

David: You see, Rudi, this is "cruising". On Saturday night, the main street is ours. (You like) _____ it?

Rudi: It's super. But I must say, I (feel) _____ hungry.

Ann: Okay, let's go to the Kentucky Fried Chicken drive-in.

The three youngsters (have) _____ a good time at the fast-food restaurant. David and Ann (fetch) _____ two soda drinks and a glass of beer for Rudi.

David: You see, we never (drink) _____ alcohol when we are out with the car. We (not want) _____ to lose our driving licenses.

Ann tells Rudi that they (spend) _____ most of their Saturday nights "cruising". Later in the evening, they usually (go) _____ to a cheap take-away for a hamburger or a pizza. And very often, Saturday night (end) _____ with a drive-in movie because it is much cheaper than a movie theater.

Ann: Well, that's our way of relaxing and having some fun. I (hope) _____ you (like) _____ it.

Rudi: Not bad. But I (think) _____ I've drunk too much beer. Can you drive me home, please?